

4 Jackson Crescent Denistone East, NSW

A little home with big potential

This 3 bedroom brick home is sitting on 485sqm of land. This property going to be one of the cheapest buys in Denistone East this year! And while it needs a bit of updating, it's a solid full brick home with plenty of potential if someone does a bit of work to it. It's a great location and one of the best first home for a couple or someone starting out, it is also ideal for downsizers that know and love this quiet leafy street.

The owner is sure that the property will be knocked down and rebuilt with something a little more modern and double story. This property is a blank canvas in a special location.

The property is less than 500m away from two local primary schools, St Therese & Denistone East Public School. Denistone East locals will understand how lovely of a location this property is. Ryde Hospital & it's emergency department is also close by and you have plenty of public transport options. There are buses to the city only a few minutes' walk away an
